THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

(Reflection on Sunday Gospel)

Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures

Aren't we like the apostles? We won't believe unless we can see with our own eyes. The Gospel accounts attest to the reality of the resurrection of Jesus from the grave. Jesus goes to great lengths to assure his disciples that he is no mere ghost or illusion. He shows them the marks of his crucifixion and he explains how the Scriptures foretold his death and rising.

Want to join a ministry. For more information call the respected leader, listed on the front cover of the bulletin.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

An underlying lesson from all three readings this weekend is that the Risen Christ has wiped away our sins, not only for individuals, but throughout the world and its history. The terrible power of sin has now been reversed and our coming to perfection through the love of God is part of the Easter experience. As stewards of God's love we are called to participate in Christ's redemptive activity. The stewardship questions for us are many: How do we resist injustice at home or in the workplace? How do we confront violence in our language and attitudes? How do we bring Christ to others?

Why Easter Matters to Me

Dcn Christopher S. Ribucan, Holy Rosary Parish, Paia, Maui
Newly Ordained, February 2018

Easter is Joy. Joy in Christ Jesus who has conquered death for us. Joy in the resurrection of Jesus is joy in "new life" in him. But what does this new life look like?

Daniel 3:52-90 is a song of praise blessing the Lord and also calls all of creation to join in blessing him. The sun, rain, mountains, and birds all freely and joyfully praise and bless the Lord. What's amazing about this song of praise is its context. Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael are glorifying and blessing God from inside of a furnace!

Unlike the rest of creation, humanity is given free-will. Like Daniel, we must choose to praise and bless the Lord above all forever!

New life in Christ means being a living testament to this joy that is within you. New life is choosing what keeps us in right relationship with God. Even when it means being placed inside a fiery furnace.

Easter tells us that joy transcends suffering. Our joy is more than feelings or personal preferences. Our joy is in our Savior, his name is Jesus Christ. Our joy is in the Holy Spirit whom Jesus has sent us to guide us to the truth of "new life." Blessed be God forever, Alleluia!
