REFLECTION ON TODAY'S READING:

The people of Samaria come to worship the Lord and receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. It is this same Spirit who leads us into the truth. In the body, Jesus was put to death; in the Spirit, he was raised to life. We are called to this same glory.

(Reflection on Sunday Gospel)
"The Counselor will be with you for ever"

What makes us both fully human and truly like God? Is it not unconditional love which is unselfish, undying, and wholly directed to the good of others? The love of God unites us in an unbreakable bond of fidelity, friendship, and community with others. Jesus loved his own until the very end of his passion and death on the cross (John 13:1).

The Kaona of Aloha

By: Sr. Cheryl Wint, osf Pastoral Associate St. Augustine by the Sea

All Lent, 'ALOHA' kept creeping into my consciousness and I found myself looking for the KAONA, hidden meaning, especially as I reflect on my vows in light of my Franciscan spirituality and charism. These reflections led me to this beautiful, historical discovery:

Hawaii Revised Statutes 5-7.5 says that "Aloha Spirit" is the coordination of mind and heart within each person. Aloha brings each person to the self. Each person must think and emote good feelings to others. These are traits of character that express the charm, warmth and sincerity of Hawaii's people.

Aloha was the working philosophy of native Hawaiians and was presented as a gift to the people of Hawaii....and later beyond the islands.

"Aloha" is more than a word of greeting or farewell or a salutation. "Aloha" means mutual regard and affection and extends warmth in caring with no obligation in return.

"Aloha" is the essence of relationships in which each person is important to every other person for our collective existence. "Aloha" means to hear what is not said, to see that which cannot be seen and to know the unknowable.

The 5 p.m. Saturday Vigil Mass this weekend is intended for the Missa pro populo (Mass of the parish people).

The following collective intentions are offered on other masses.
